Trilojay

Bio

Introducing, the three Jays. Jay Leonard Juatco, Jay Esplana and Jason Nickel, three of Vancouver's most talented and energetic performers. Beyond the razorblade grooves, adrenaline-fueled stagershow, and mastery of their art, Trilojay is about the experience of music. One can experience Trilojay either from the dense heat on the dance floor or the inspired creativity in their arrangements. Regardless of the means of enjoyment, the group has something inspiring and captivating to emit beyond the boundaries of the stage's edge.

The musicians are among the elite in the industry and their goal is to create something new yet completely familiar to the people. Outstandingly versatile, quickly adaptable, and attune to the emotion of the crowd, Trilojay is always ready to fill the dance floor and keep it crowded till the last downbeat.
